GRATE BARS—Suitable for wood or sawdust, for sale at the Foundry, near the Ironton depot.

When ordering goods by Express from St. Louis always direct shippers to forward by Iron Mountain Railroad Express.

A well executed 11 by 14 inch view of Pilot Knob, taken by Mr. Enos, is on exhibition at Wilkinson's gallery. Mr. Enos' work cannot be excelled outside of St. Louis. He leaves on the 1st of July for Wisconsin.

THE FIRST PEACHES.—Last Monday August Bieke, Esq., came into our sanctum and presented us with a half-dozen ripe peaches—the first of the season. As our premium was offered for the first PEACH of this fruit, he does not quite bear off the prize; but still he has the honor of being first on the ground.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's mother in Cotton Plant, Dunklin county, Mo., Wednesday, June 16, 1880 by Rev. S. J. Harkey, Jas. M. Baird, Esq. of Iron county, to Miss Lucy A. Douglass, of Dunklin county.

Jim and his fair bride are now visiting his parents in Arcadia, and he is the happiest looking mortal we have seen in these many days. May both live long to enjoy the felicity of married life is the wish of the REGISTERS.

A view of the Arcadia College, with fine photos of the lady students, Father Hennepin, and others, is now on exhibition at Mr. Wilkinson's gallery. Also, a finely executed and general view of the Granite Quarry. They are both 11 by 14 inch views. Mr. Enos will furnish them at the very low figures of $2.00 each. Give him an early call, as he leaves on the 1st of July.

Robt. Hootson desires us to tell the public generally that he will hereafter, during the season of 1880, have Ice-Cream on hand for sale at his restaurant, every day and night of the week, except Sunday. He will furnish this delicacy by the plate, quart or gallon—in the larger quantities, at very low rates. He will also keep a supply of the various fruits of the season. Restaurant, south side courthouse square.

BAIRD—DOUGLASS—June 16th, at 8 o'clock A. M., at the residence of the bride's mother, in Dunklin county, Mo., by the Rev. S. J. Harkey, JAMES M. BAIRD, formerly of Arcadia, to Miss LUCY A. DOUGLASS, of Dunklin county.

Thus we see, although Dunklin county has taken some of the fair ones from our midst, our boys go down there and bring to our beautiful valley the fairest of the fair. We are now one ahead, and hope there will be no more swooping. Peace, long life and happiness go with them through life.

CITIZEN.

PERSONALS.—Mrs. Louis Landau, nee Jennie Lopez, came from the city Sunday on a visit to friends and relatives.

Miss B. Harris, of Elmwood, Ill., is in town on a visit to friends.

Miss Mamie and Rene Zwart left Wednesday morning for St. Louis to attend the Commencement Exercises of the Ursuline Convent.

Miss Lulu Yancey, daughter of Mr. C. D. Yancey, is here spending a short vacation with friends.

Our young friend, Jos. A. Beyburn, Esq., was in town Tuesday. He is traveling for Stone & Co., Boots & Shoes, St. Louis.

Mr. Jas. Baird and bride, of Dunklin Co., are visiting relatives in Arcadia.

Miss Allie Meyers came down to be present at the Commencement Exercises of the College.

Miss Beck, of Bismarck, was in town last week visiting friends.

KILLED ON THE TRACK.—Last Monday afternoon, about fifteen minutes past five o'clock, as the pusher was returning from Pilot Knob, and when approaching the bridge across Stout's creek, the engineer and conductor, at the same instant, discovered a man lying on the track, or rather at the side of the track, with his head close to the right rail. They first saw him when within about one hundred feet, and at once whistled, applied the brakes and reversed the lever. The intervening distance was so short, and the engine ran fifty feet beyond before it could be stopped. Conductor Sykes jumped off and ran back, when he found that the body had been knocked off the track and thrown down the embankment. A closer examination showed that he was dead, with his head and shoulder crushed. Mr. Sykes at once communicated the intelligence to the proper officers, and a coroner's jury was summoned, sat on the body, and returned a verdict of excruciating the crew of the "pusher" from all blame. It was also determined that the dead man's name was John Carroll; that he had been working at Pilot Knob for about three months; that two weeks ago he started on a spree, and that he kept it up until his death. Whether it was suicide is a question that will perhaps remain unsolved forever. The following citizens composed the jury: T. B. Grigsby, J. W. Whitworth, J. N. Bishop, Ed. Gallagher, Manly Peck, and Wm. T. Gay. The body was taken charge of and buried at the expense of the county, as the deceased had no relatives in this part of the country.

From Des Arc.

Des Arc, Mo., June 20th, 1880.

Ed. Register.—As "Uncle Ned," "Jeff. Davis" and "Gunboats" are all dead, and nothing left down here but candidates, I must hit them blow for blow. Sheriff Buford paid us a flying visit last week. He is marshalling some heavy forces down here among the voters, and if Bill don't mind he will have to retreat in bad order. Buford is using 24-pound howitzers and canister shot, and it is having a fearful effect. It makes such men as Wiley O'Neal, Sr., and Sam King drop their heads. He also explains the third term satisfactorily. The harvest is over and wheat generally goes to seed. Andy Wallace will make 500 bushels. I saw him one day last week standing where the men were stacking his wheat, and he looked 12 inches taller than common. I guess he feels proud of his crop. By-the-by, he is a Buford man, and a big gun among our citizens. Seals and Ross were also among us. I am afraid they will be like Lion and the Unicorn fighting for the Crown: Up jump the little dog and knock them both down—and that will be a Bell-clapper.

Col. T. B. Lowe, Judge Kemper and Milton Roberts were in town yesterday following burial for Buford.

Our blacksmith has gone to the city. I pity larger bear while he is there.

The little coffee mill is making lumber, too; but—thunder! Hurrah for Iowa!

The Band boys have secured the services of Mr. Hootson, of our town, into whose hands have been placed the furnishing of the refreshments, etc., with a will in their behalf, and with their help, will make things lively enough to suit the gayest and happiest crowd of patriots in America.

Flying Dutchman.
Aunt Sally, with Balls.
Wheel of Fortune—ten cts. a chance. Prizes from 25c to $2.50.

Slow mule races and sack races.

Target-Shooting.
Entries for slow mule races will be received up to noon of that day.

The Brass Band will discourse music the whole day long. No entrance fee will be charged, and the grounds will be free to all.

Ice Cream, lemonade, sandwiches and eatables will be dispersed to hungry and thirsty people, at the usual rates.

Commencement Exercises of the Arcadia College.

On Thursday last this institution held its annual exhibition. The large parlors on the first floor were thrown open and the work of pupils displayed, filling two tables the length of the rooms. Useful and ornamental work of every description and design of which the mind could conceive was here shown. Our attention was next attracted by a table elegantly groaning beneath the weight of elegant cakes, such that any baker might well be proud of, baked by the members of the Cooking Class.

At 3 o'clock P. M. the doors of the Exhibition Hall, on the second floor, were thrown open, and the audience, which had been loitering on the beautiful grounds, passed in, filling every available seat and space.

The exercises were pursuant to the following programme:

Distribution of Premiums.

The programme was well rendered, and the exhibition one of the best ever given in the Valley. The music was first-class in every respect. The pupils all did well; and showed that they had been well trained in their respective parts.

The Sisters certainly deserve credit for the able manner in which the exhibition was conducted. Mother Rose especially deserves great credit for the way in which she conducted the music. Mother Rose is one of the best musicians in the country; and so long as she is connected with the College, we may expect to hear the very best of music.

Below we give a list of the premiums given:
